Doing it right

Today's world is changing rapidly and our customers are changing too – you expect more than just great value. You want to know that our products have been made responsibly, that materials are from a sustainable source, that packaging can be recycled, that the carbon footprint has been considered and that the people who made the product were paid fairly and treated fairly.

You want to know that as a big organisation we are doing business responsibly, and that we are safeguarding the resources of our small planet so that there will always be a great choice of home improvement products for future generations of homeowners.

To ensure that we can meet your expectations we've built the One Planet Home Plan. It's a big plan with a big ambition to offer great value products that are responsibly produced, providing what you want today and what you will need in the future.

The programme aims to help all of us to 'do our bit' to shape the future of our home by addressing five main areas:

- ♥ Energy Saving
- ♥ Water Saving
- ♥ Recycle & Re-use
- ♥ Garden Greener
- ♥ Forest Friendly

It considers 'Our Home' – what we do in our business, and 'Your Home' – what we'll do to help you create a greener home.

OUR HOME

Our commitment to building a sustainable B&Q

- ♥ Target 20% reduction in CO₂ by 2013, 90% reduction by 2024 – so far we've achieved 16%
- ♥ Target no more than 2% of 2006 tonnage of waste to go to landfill by 2023 – so far we've reduced our waste to landfill by 86%
- ♥ Target 50% CO₂ reduction across transport by 2023 – so far we've achieved 28%

To see the full plan and how we are doing visit www.diy.com/eco

YOUR HOME

Our promise to help you create a greener home.

- ♥ Over 4000 products independently verified to be a greener choice
- ♥ B&Q's Forest Friendly promise that all of our wood & wood based products are from a source approved as sustainable
- ♥ Great choices for greener gardens from peat free compost to bee friendly plants.
- ♥ Lots of help and advice online & instore about how to make your home greener

Doing your bit

According to Waterwise, we each use 150 litres of water every day - and the bathroom is a great place to start to make your home more water efficient.

Smart flushing

Modern dual flush toilets use just 4 litres of water per short flush - but look out for models like the Alexas Close Coupled that flush effectively with even less - only 3 litres per short flush.

Recycled water

Combining a basin with a toilet is a great space saving idea for a cloakroom - but also cleverly recycles water from the basin into the cistern - see Buying Guide.

Aerating showerheads

Mixing air with water, aerating showerheads use up to 70% less water (source - manufacturer) without losing power from your shower. And as it's hot water that's saved, this helps to keep heating bills down too. Available and in selected stores.
